NEW SEWING CLUB SETS UP IN LONGBARN

Were you entertained by The Great British Sewing Bee TV programme & got the sewing bug?

Do you like sewing?

Do you like knitting (loom or knitting needles)?

Would you like to learn or improve your skills?

A group of residents has set up a new sewing club ~ The Flying Pin Cushions ~ which meets every Monday, noon-4pm, at The Station House Pub on Station Road South. And for a modest charge of £5 (to help pay for the venue), you can attend for the full 4 hours, or dip in & out at your convenience (& if the room's available, the sessions may be extended to 9pm at no extra cost to you).

With sewing machines, cutting out fabric patterns, quilting, & making new things out of old, there's lots to learn & entertain you.

But of course it's not just about sewing & as those who take part already have said, it's also about getting out of the house & meeting with people of like minds & having a laugh ~ the health & wellbeing aspects of this adventure should not be underestimated.

So please feel free to join the group on Monday (men & women take part already). And follow them on Facebook. Or for more information phone 07305 541891.

Incidentally, if you have a working sewing machine gathering dust, or unwanted garments taking up space in your wardrobe, all donations gratefully received.
